OFFICE ORDER

The construction of "Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya Institute of Archaeology" at Plot No. 2, Sector Knowledge Park-II, Greater Noida is expected to be completed by November, 2018. It has been decided that besides the Institute of Archaeology, the following offices of Archaeological Survey of India, which are presently functioning from Red Fort, Delhi shall be shifted to the new building- "Pt. Deendayal Upadhyay Institute of Archaeology" at Greater Noida:-

1. Excavation Branch-II, Red Fort, Delhi.
2. Central Antiquity Collection, Purana Qila, New Delhi

The shifting will be done in phased manner. In Phase- I, shifting of offices of Institute of Archaeology and Central Antiquity Collection will be taken up. Accordingly, all the offices concerned are directed to prepare the Action Plan for effecting smooth shifting of offices without loss of time as soon as the new building is ready for occupation.

The issues with the approval of Director General, ASI.
